Berlin Contingency Planning

Your despatch No. 1894 forwards for Department's comments draft of multiple form movement order which would be used in non-agency situation. We note only change from movement order now in use is addition of German to English, French, and Russian texts.

Department's only suggestion is that Embassy may wish, for sake of clarity add something like following between first and second lines of movement order when movement involves more than one person: QUOTE (train) (convoy) commander, and the attached list of persons ... UNQUOTE These words might of course be typed rather than printed.

Defense prepared accept whatever form acceptable to interested military headquarters.
